CONFERENCE SYNOPSIS

Despite being relatively protected from the GFC compared to many other parts of the world, the Australian maritime industry in 2010 was forced to deal with some of the most difficult commercial challenges it has had to face in recent times.

Hopefully 2011 will bring more prosperous times for the maritime industry. However, in 2011 the Australian maritime industry is likely to face a number of legal issues such as the ongoing issue of container detention and the introduction of the Personal Property & Securities Act 2009 (Cth). Expected to commence in May 2011, this is one of the most significant pieces of legislation to be introduced in Australia in recent times and lawyers and business people alike should not underestimate the effects it will have on the way we deal with personal property and their businesses.

MLAANZ NSW has arranged for some of the foremost experts in their area to speak at the MLAANZ NSW Biennial Mini Conference in Lillianfels on 11 March 2011 on topics that are likely to be of great significance to the maritime industry in 2011. The programme is still being tweaked but we can assure you that it will be one not to be missed. We invite anyone with an interest in the maritime industry to attend.

CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

The conference will commence on Thursday, 10 March 2011 with an informal dinner for anyone arriving early (own cost). The programme proper will be conducted on Friday, 11 March 2011 and will be followed by a gala dinner function at Lillianfels.

Lillianfels Blue Mountains Resort & Spa is a renowned haven of relaxation in one of Australia's most beautiful destinations. It is housed in a historic country mansion set amidst two acres of manicured gardens. Partners and children are encouraged to attend the conference.

Attendees may be eligible to claim 1 CLE/CPD unit for each hour of attendance at the conference, making it a cost-effective way to satisfy your ongoing professional education requirements.

ACCOMMODATION

MLAANZ has arranged a limited number of rooms for the Thursday and Friday nights at a special price of $210 on a first in best dressed basis. This is a tremendous saving for this exclusive resort. Accommodation is to be arranged for and paid directly by each delegate. We attach a booking form from Lillianfels for your information.
