

“NAVIGATING THROUGH UNCHARTED WATERS - LEGAL CHALLENGES FOR THE MARITIME INDUSTRY IN 2011”

PROGRAMME

Friday, 11 March 2011

10.00 — 10.30	Registration and Morning Tea
10.30 — 10.40	Introduction
10.40 — 11.40	Keynote Speaker Justice Steven Rares, (Federal Court of Australia)
11.40 — 12.20	Developments with Electronic Bills of Lading Nicholas Gaskell (Professor of Law, The University of Queensland)
12.30 — 13.30	Lunch
13.30 — 14.00	Bills of Lading and Penalty Clauses, Professor Elisabeth Peden, (Barrister, 12th Wentworth Selbourne Chambers and Professor of Law, Sydney University)
14.00 — 14.30	Whaling and the International Court Action Dr Tim Stephens, (Senior Lecturer of Law, Sydney University)
14.30 — 15.00	Regulatory Reform - Views from AMSA AMSA - Speaker to be confirmed
15.00 — 15.15	Afternoon Tea and Refreshments
15.15 — 16.00	Personal Property & Securities Act 2009, Lessons from New Zealand, Karl Stolberger, (Partner of Lowndes Jordan, Auckland NZ) or Barbara Versfelt (Special Counsel of Lowndes Jordan, Auckland NZ)
16.00 — 16.45	Ahoy me Hearties! - Dealing with Modern Maritime Piracy - Hypothetical (Various expert speakers, including Commander Ian Campbell (Royal Australian Navy), Marcus John (Thomas Miller), Frazer Hunter (Piper Alderman) and others will lead us through a swashbuckling journey of dealing with the modern day threat of piracy)
16.45	Conference Concludes
18.30	Gala Dinner, Lilianfels Restaurant