

SENIOR LAWYER

- Specialist Maritime Law firm
- Client base of national and international marine businesses and individuals
- Friendly and enthusiastic culture
- Superb opportunity, sunny Nelson location

We are an expanding boutique maritime law practice that is recognised for its expertise in consulting with and providing practical legal advice on a wide range of maritime issues to the marine industry. We act for many high profile clients and are regularly involved in matters that shape the marine industry in New Zealand.

The culture of our firm is personable, proactive and non-hierarchical, and this position has good partnership prospects for the right person.

Due to a growth in work volumes we need an experienced all round lawyer who has:

- 4+ years experience in practice, with maritime law expertise an advantage (but not essential)
- A good exposure to litigation
- A strong commercial bent
- A passion for maritime / marine issues
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Self motivation and organisational skills

This is unique opportunity for a talented and motivated lawyer.
