ICMA XX CALL FOR PAPERS

The Twentieth International Congress of Maritime Arbitrators (ICMA XX) will take place in Copenhagen, Denmark from 25 to 29 September 2017.

The Topics & Agenda Committee has been formed and a list of its Members is attached.

Proposals to present papers at ICMA XX are now invited. A list of suggested categories of topics is also attached. In addition, papers on any subject matter relevant to the practice of maritime law and maritime arbitration of both a procedural and substantive nature are invited.

Papers will be presented in both plenary and parallel sessions, each of which will include a panel of speakers.

Speakers will be invited from the international maritime and arbitration community to present, at plenary sessions, papers on subject matters of significant general interest. If you would like to nominate yourself or someone else to receive an invitation to write a paper for a plenary session, please promptly notify the Committee Chair, Peter McQueen, at peter@petermcqueen.com or any Committee Member.

Papers to be presented in parallel sessions will be those dealing with more specialized subject matter than those presented in the plenary sessions.

Each speaker will be given 15 minutes to present the most interesting aspect of his/her paper likely to generate lively discussion amongst the speaker, panel members and fellow delegates.

Those wishing to present papers are requested to submit a summary of no more than 250 words by 15 January 2017 online to summarypapers@icma2017copenhagen.org. Notification of acceptance of papers will be sent by email by 15 March 2017 with information as to their required format and layout.

Papers selected for presentation will be required to be submitted by 15 June 2017.

Email enquiries should be directed to the Committee Chair, Peter McQueen, or to any Committee Member, whose email contact appears in the attached list of Members.
