

SEMAPHORE

Newsletter of the Maritime Law

Association of Australia and New Zealand

Pending Journal Items

Part 2, Volume 33 of the Australian and New Zealand Maritime Law Journal – will include:

- the 2019 Dethridge Memorial Address – “From automation to autonomy – can the law keep up?”
- “Unravelling The Strands of The South China Sea Conundrum: A Critical Analysis of China’s Actions and Statements”
- “The ‘Forever’ Chemicals: PFAS and the Maritime Industry”
- “Finding the ‘Ship’: Guardian Offshore Au Pty Ltd v Saab Seaeye Leopard 1702 Remotely Operated Vehicle [2020] FCA 273”
- “Negligence or Incompetence: Grounding of the CMA CGM Libra”

Professor Craig Forrest

Director, Marine and Shipping Law Unit

General Editor, Australian and New Zealand Maritime Law Journal

School of Law, The University of Queensland

Room W206, Forgan Smith Building, St Lucia Campus, Brisbane, Queensland 4072

+61 7 3346 9027

c.forrest@law.uq.edu.au

law.uq.edu.au

July 2020

