

SEMAPHORE

Newsletter of the Maritime Law

Association of Australia and New Zealand

Call for Journal Submissions

Submissions are being invited for the Australian and New Zealand Maritime Law Journal volume 38, which will be published in two issues in 2024.

The Journal publishes significant works of scholarship that make original contributions to different fields of maritime law.

Deadlines for submissions for volume 1 issue 2 are as follows:

- refereed articles – 31 October
- current developments, book reviews and case notes – 15 November

Submissions must be made online through the Journal's website.

Registration is required for submission and the register link can be found under the about/ submission tag on the homepage. The privacy statement assures readers that their name and E-mail address will not be used for other purposes and can be accessed prior to registration.

The Journal does not accept articles that have been, or will be, published elsewhere, either in identical or substantially similar form.

An open-access publication – including to the current and past volumes in the archive – the Journal is administered by the Marine and Shipping Law Unit (MASLU) at the School of Law, University of Queensland, Australia. MASLU brings together academics with specialisations across the entire spectrum of maritime law.

For further information please contact:

Professor Craig Forrest
General editor, Australian and New Zealand Maritime Law Journal
Director, MASLU, School of Law
University of Queensland St Lucia, QLD 4072
c.forrest@law.uq.edu.au
+61 (0)7 3346 9027

September 2024

